Conwy Castle, Wales 14th Century

Le Ménestrel .

The folk they lived by the castle gate protected by the knight

The folk they only ate what they grew

...and cooked upon the fire

The folk they only wore what they wove, the ladies, lords and squires.

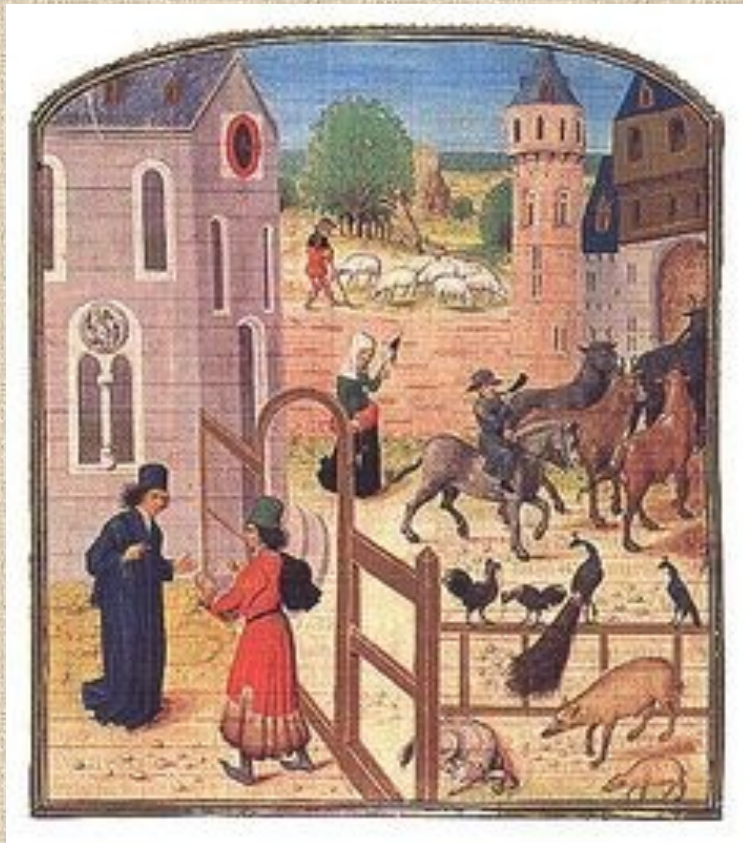

The kings and queens were royalty.

The knights protect the people.

Camelus inde nomi accepit. sine qua quā honoratur. ut breuior et humilior fiat. accubatur. quia

The peasants work and grow the food.

The bell-ringers ring the bells.
